

To Member Organizations of the International Association of Individual Psychology (IAIP)

November-December 2025

Dear Colleagues,

This is your somewhat delayed third quarter 2025 newsletter. It is brief – but saturated with all the good information we really want you to share with your organizations and other interested colleagues, of course!

First of all, please make sure to register for and attend the IAIP Online Sections Conference Meet the Sections: Global Changes - Timeless Adlerian Principles. on January 24, 2026. The conference will be a half-day event, reasonably accommodating various time zones, as we did last year. Attendance is free, but registration is required.

To register, please follow the link below or scan the QR code.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/BDaE2-ZCRvOhoxrIKMJ8Rg#/registration>

Following the Welcome by the IAIP Board, we will enjoy the keynote speech by Erik Mansager, “Successive Simultaneity” - Adler and Contemporary Psychotherapy.”

The keynote will be followed by parallel sessions presented by the five active IAIP sections:

Section Psychotherapy – Children and Adolescents will present New languages and new techniques in child and adolescent psychotherapy: Adlerian theory facing the challenges of our time.

Section Psychotherapy – Adults will present Divergent Lenses, Shared Depths: An Adlerian Exploration of Dreams and the Unconscious.

Section Counseling will present two tracks: Counseling: Definition, interpretation, and practice in different countries, and Overcoming inferiority feelings caused by disability through encouragement.

Section Pedagogics and Education will present Understanding and Meeting the Needs of Parents and Teachers in a Changing World.

Section Science - Theory and Research will present a Survey of Adlerian Clinical Trainings.

The next event is the March 20-22, 2026, regional IAIP conference in Osaka, Japan, organized jointly by Japanese, Taiwanese, and Korean colleagues, with the support of the IAIP Board. The topic is “Time to Blossom – Roots and Growth of Individual Psychology in Asia”. Although all the oral presentations have been confirmed, the committee is still accepting poster proposals (by January 15th, 2026).

The registration link is below or scan the QR code. Registration deadline is February 20, 2026.

<https://time-to-blossom.peatix.com/>

With questions, please write to timetoblossom26@gmail.com

The Osaka conference will feature

Three keynote lectures:

Healing “Mind Disorder” by deepening the Holism, Ichirou Umezaki (Japanese Society of Adlerian Psychology - JSAP).

Blossoming in Asia: From Scholar Lee’s Philosophy to Adler’s Community Feeling - Bridging Traditional Philosophy, Individual Psychology, and Contemporary Cultural Practice, Julia Park (Korean Adlerian Psychology Association - KAPA)

Rooted in Courage, Growing in Connection: The Journey of Adlerian Psychology Across Cultures and Generations, Julia Yang & Mark Blagen (Taiwanese Society of Adlerian Psychology - TSAP)

Two special lectures

Time to Blossom - Individual Psychology Beyond Therapy, Ursula Oberst (IAIP Board)

Adlerian Psychology - the Roots of Faith, the Sustenance of the Faithful, and What is Next, Marina Bluvshstein (IAIP Board).

Poster Presentation, a roundtable discussion, and more than 20 highly experiential & engaging, bold & innovative sessions with presenters from Taiwan, Korea, Japan, China, Singapore, Israel, Romania, the United Kingdom, the US, & more.

A third reminder! There is still time to apply for the Alfred Adler Institute of New York grant, with the application deadline fast approaching – December 15th, 2025. To apply for a grant, go to the link below and fill in the online form:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdXVuvPpRTvYvmEjR7UFIg1u_2iAj4dUyRzJV5Vi7B_Q0LjdA/viewform

For inquiries concerning the grants, write to: grants@alfredadlerinstituteNY.org

Finally, as you plan all sorts of holiday events this season, please send us your photos and share what you celebrate and how you celebrate it, so we can share your joy and your year-end reflections with everyone.

Please share this letter with your organization's members.

Sincerely,

IAIP Board

Michaela Stacher-Linhart, Giansecondo Mazzoli, Ursula Oberst, & Marina Bluvshstein.